Location: Noordwijkerhout – Amsterdam

TALL TOGETHER IN AMSTERDAM

This folder provides some insight into our programme for the Europatreffen (Europe Meeting) for 2008. For a detailed description, your optimal travel plans, our offer and the registration form, see www.talltogether08.nl

Sunday 27 April 2008

The programme for today is: arrival, re-acquaintance with old friends and getting to know new ones.

Transfer Amsterdam Schiphol Airport – Hotel
(set times, see registration form)

Monday 28 April 2008

The first day takes place in our capital city, Amsterdam. A scavenger hunt will take you on a walk through the world-famous Jordaan and the infamous Red Light District (“De Wallen”). After lunch, we will organise a ‘Smartlappen’ workshop, where you can learn typical Amsterdam folk music. After dinner, we will bring you back to the hotel.

Transfer Hotel – Amsterdam and vice versa
Scavenger hunt and ‘Smartlappen’ Workshop
Lunch en Dinner

Tuesday 29 April 2008

Naarden is a picturesque old fortified city. We will admire this beautiful place and see the sights. We will then have lunch in a nature area nearby. After lunch, we will visit the Muiderslot castle, built in 1208, and hear about the Dutch Golden Age.

You will then have the choice of returning to the centre of Noordwijk or to the hotel. Dinner is every man for himself, and those interested in the ‘Queen’s night’ festivities will be brought to Amsterdam. They will have to find their own way back.

Transfer Hotel – Naarden Vesting
Visit Naarden Vesting and Muiderslot Castle
Lunch

Transfer from Muiderslot to Hotel

Optional: Transfer Muiderslot – Noordwijk Centre or Amsterdam

Not included: Dinner

Wednesday 30 April 2008

Today is People’s Party No.1, Queen’s Day! The organisation will bring you from the Hotel to Amsterdam and back. In Amsterdam you have the opportunity to explore the street market, performances and other festivities. This is Amsterdam at its finest. Dinner at the hotel is a typical Dutch buffet (optional).

Transfer from Hotel to Amsterdam and vice versa (set times)

Optional: Dutch buffet dinner in the hotel

Thursday 1 May 2008

The first day of the main programme includes arrival of new guests, the exchange, the European Council and a big welcome dinner. We suggest that the guests who had already arrived explore the direct surroundings of Noordwijkerhout and the North Sea beach. At 18:00, the dinner buffet will officially open, and the festivities will continue until 02:00.

Transfer Schiphol Amsterdam Airport – Hotel (set times, see registration form)
Buffet dinner and party

Friday 2 May 2008

Today is the big day. (T)all on the Water!!

From the IJsselmeer city Enkhuizen we will enjoy a day on the water in traditional sailing ships. We will go where the wind takes us, but it is possible that we may stop at Marken or Volendam.

The guests who do not have strong sea legs can spend the day in and around Enkhuizen. You can visit the historic triangle Enkhuizen-Hoorn-Medemblik via steam locomotive, ferry and train, and see the open-air Zuiderzee Museum. We will close the day with dinner together and then return to the hotel.

Transfer Hotel – Enkhuizen and vice versa

Option: 1. (T)all on the Water Sailing trip

Option: 2. Historical triangle and open-air museum

Lunch and Dinner

Saturday 3 May 2008

Today is the day of the gala party. You can relax or prepare for the party in the evening. We suggest spending the day in or around Noordwijkerhout and the North Sea beach.

The gala dinner will begin at 18:00, followed by a spectacular party. Several different areas will offer a live band, a DJ or the Sports bar. This evening, as on Thursday, you can enjoy the luxury of having the party without having to leave the hotel.

The party will continue until 02:00.

Gala dinner and party

Optional: Hairdresser, manicurist and beautician (see registration form)
